

returnable, or to any judge thereof; and the said court or judge may order an attachment for contempt against such president or other officer, and may compel him to answer upon oath on oral examination as to the number of shares of stock and amount of debt standing on the books of the corporation, in the name of the defendant, at the time of service of such notice, and may compel the production of the books of said corporation, and also fine the president or other officer for not giving the required certificate.

1888, art. 23, sec. 280. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 201.

394. When the sheriff has ascertained the number of shares of stock and amount of such debt standing in the name of the defendant, he shall make a schedule of such shares or debt, or so much thereof as will be amply sufficient to secure the sum of money he is required to levy, and costs, and shall give notice to the corporation that the stock or debt not included in this schedule is released.

Ibid. sec. 281. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 202.

395. If the levy be made under a fiery facias, the sheriff shall advertise and sell the stock or debt as if the same were real estate.

Ibid. sec. 282. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 203.

396. If any corporation or its officers, after service of notice of seizure as aforesaid, shall transfer or permit to be transferred any shares of stock or any debt standing at the time of service in the name of the defendant, unless the same is released, as provided in the succeeding section, such corporation shall pay to the plaintiff in the writ under which such notice was given the full market value of the stock or debt so transferred, to be recovered by suit.

Ibid. sec. 283. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 204.

397. If the proceedings under such writ be ended by countermand, payment or any other cause before a sale, the stock seized thereunder shall be released, and the sheriff shall give notice thereof in writing to the corporation.

Ibid. sec. 284. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 205.

398. If the sheriff shall make sale of any shares of stock or transferable debt, whether he continues in office or not, or
